HART | KING

Whether you are involved in a breach of contract claim, probate litigation of a will contest, a copyright defense or business dispute between partners or shareholders, our experienced Hart | King lawyers are here to protect your interests — and guide your company toward successful resolution of commercial litigation.

Hart | King's skilled business and real estate transactions attorneys consistently deliver wide-ranging legal services to corporations, limited liability companies, partnerships and proprietors of all sizes. We understand your business, the full scope of your legal needs, and the importance of being both cost-effective and results-oriented.

We are widely recognized as the premier law firm to assist manufactured housing communities, mobile home parks and RV parks for more than 30 years. Hart | King represents well over 300 parks and communities statewide in California. Our park and community owner clients range from single asset owners to national REITs.
