Hot Litigation Topics to Consider When Creating Estate Plans

November 16, 2017 | 11:30 am - Noon

Join Hart King Litigation Partner, Andrew Kienle, for an in-depth interview about the common litigation pitfalls that can be avoided in the drafting phase of estate planning. He'll share real scenarios and provide insight into practices that estate planning attorneys should consider when developing their clients' estate plans in the following areas:

- Trust accounting and disclosure requirements

- Appointing or removing a trustee
- Modifying or terminating trusts
- Seeking court instruction in connection with trust administration
- Follow-up communication with client after estate plan is created

You'll learn how to fortify your clients' plans and mitigate the risks associated with some of these common issues. Don't miss out on the valuable information, which could help keep you and your clients out of court.
